

SIMPLICITY.

"How grand," says some one after listening to what we call an "eloquent and masterful discourse" or after reading a great collection of high sounding or melodious arrangement of words. But how many of these things last? After hearing what we call a great prayer by an able divine, one is profoundly impressed, moved to exclaim, "How impressive" and yet how long is it remembered? Compare one of these with the Lord's Prayer. How simple it seems, yet it has lived through two thousand years, has been formed millions of times on human lips in each generation and will be as long as time shall last. It does not take half an hour to recite nor is it full of words that are strange to many persons. Grand in its simplicity, it is. Perhaps you have forgotten it or are unfamiliar with it. Read it now:

"Our Father who art in Heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in Heaven, so on earth.

Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we also forgive our debtors.

And bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one."

And as the editors of the Revised Version explain, many ancient authorities add, "For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen."

No pope, no bishop, no priest, no doctor of divinity, no man has ever equaled it in simplicity as a prayer from man to God.

Of the speeches made by American statesmen the one destined to become to the best known is Lincoln's Gettysburg speech and it is the shortest. It is not only short, but it is simple. Read it:

Four score and seven years ago, our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal. Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation  or any nation so conceived and so dedicated can long endure.

We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We are met to dedicate a portion of it as the final resting place of those who have given their lives that the nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

But, in a large sense, we can not dedicate, we can not consecrate, we can not hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it, far above our power to add to or detract. The world will very little note nor long remember what we say here; but it can never forget what they did here.

It is for us, the living, rather, to be dedicated here, to unfinished work they have thus far so nobly carried on. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us; that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they here gave the last full measure of devotion; that we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that the nation shall, under God, have a new birth of freedom, and that government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth.

Every Home Needs "First Aids."

Among the safe and trustworthy "first aids" necessary in every home is—Sloan's Liniment. Bruises, muscle-aches and pains get quick relief. The penetrating, antiseptic and healing properties of this liniment have been proven time and time again. It is the kind of a remedy that once tried makes a constant friend. The ever increasing use of Sloan's Liniment shows that its merit has obtained greater and greater recognition.

"Safety First"—for the aches and rheumatic twinges of old age and the bruises of youth meet relief in the use of Sloan's Liniment.

Spring.

Spring is looked upon by many as the most delightful season of the year, but this cannot be said by the rheumatic. The cold and damp weather brings on rheumatic pains which are anything but pleasant. They can be relieved, however, by applying Chamberlain's Liniment. Obtainable everywhere.

Parents Should Know this Splendid Remedy.

Simple Laxative Compound Helps to Correct Constipation in Children.

With all children there are times when the bowels fail to act naturally and it becomes necessary for the parents to administer a remedy. Cathartics and purgatives should never be used as these agents afford only temporary relief while their violent action shocks the system unduly. Mrs. Eva F. Gaff, 517 10th St., Washington, D. C., says that her little girl, Marie, had been subject to constipation, and that she found Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin the best remedy because of its mildness, and now always keeps a bottle of it in the house.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a compound of simple laxative herbs, free from opiates or narcotic drugs of any kind, and is an ideal remedy for children because of its mild action and positive effect. Its use tends to strengthen the impaired bowel action and restore normal regularity.

It is important that parents should know of a dependable remedy with occasions. We believe that the exercises Monday evening will be interesting also. Come to the picnic and bring a big basket.

The "negro minstrel" from Mrs. Dayton Cantley's school was played on the Bloomingvale stage Friday evening, March 31, and was enjoyed very much by our pupils and friends.

WAR! What Is It All About?

HAS the whole world gone stark mad over a very foolish and trivial question? Are swords rattling, cannon rumbling, mailed armor clashing just because Russia wanted to show her love for the little brother—Serbia? Tear aside the curtain of Europe's politics and see the grim and sinister game of chess that is being played. See upon what a slim, yet desperate, excuse the sacred lives of millions are being sacrificed. Read the history of the past one hundred years, as written by some of the greatest authorities the world has ever known, and learn the naked, shameful truth. Just to get you started as a Review of Reviews subscriber, we make you this extraordinary offer. We will give to you

FREE—"Europe at War"

A big book and over 300 pages, size 10 x 7 inches, handsomely and durably bound in cloth, containing the dramatic history of the great events leading up to the present time; over 50 important and timely special articles by experts on the different phases of the conflict; hundreds of graphic pictures, portraits, photographs, diagrams, specially drawn war maps, illuminating statistical records, copies of official documents and diplomatic messages exchanged between the powers—a clear, vivid, accurate, permanent, interesting and valuable record—a record which once seen you will not willingly be without. Europe's past and present are here dramatically pictured and presented. Hundreds of illustrations graphically tell their own stories. More fascinating than any romance, here is a history so vivid, so dramatic, so stirring, so fascinating, so realistic, so wonderfully presented, so thrillingly told that it leaves an ineffable impression.
